Choice GLADIOLI
PERENNIALS
IRISES

My lists contain many unusual offerings and are worth more than casual reading.
Instructions for Ordering

Bulbs and irises are sent prepaid at prices quoted; perennial plants go with transportation charges added or collect. Gladioli and irises are sent at any time after January 1; plants any time after February 15 if weather conditions permit, but WHENEVER DELIVERY IS DESIRED, EARLY ORDERING IS RECOMMENDED TO GET THE BENEFIT OF COMPLETE ASSORTMENT.

Remittance or bank reference should accompany order. Either check, postal or express order is acceptable. Please do not send orders in smaller amount than one dollar.

The greatest care is taken to supply stock true to name and an effort is always made to satisfactorily adjust any error in this regard, but in accordance with the custom of the trade no guarantee is given.

$2 for a Whole Hundred Gladiolus Bulbs
Gather Armfuls of Gorgeous Flowers

To encourage very liberal planting, I offer a choice mixture in small bulbs, ranging from one-half to an inch in diameter, at only $2.00 the hundred, five hundred for $9.00, one thousand for $17.00, all charges prepaid. Not less than 100 sold. They will all bloom this season if planted reasonably early, all will be magnificent bulbs for another year. Many very fine named sorts are included. Club with friends and get a thousand or plant a thousand in your own garden and cut armfuls of gorgeous bloom for your house and for friends. Dozens of appreciative letters express astonishment and delight at the results obtained from bulbs sent out on this offer in former years.

Plant these bulbs about 4 inches deep and 4 inches apart in sunny location
Eleventh Annual Catalog
GLADIOLUS FARM—1924

As I was absent from the farm for over two months and did not return until late February, a very simple catalog is being issued in order that it may be placed in the hands of flower-loving friends and customers at the earliest possible date. An examination of my listings will show many new and choice perennials listed for the first time this season. These are grown from the finest strains of imported seed, all are beautiful, many most unusual.

Following my usual custom, gladioli will be honored with first place in this booklet, for nothing else that can be planted by the average gardener will give more pleasure. It is almost impossible to fail with the plump brown bulbs, if it is remembered that a sunny situation is essential and bulbs should be set from four to six inches deep and about that distance apart. From early March until mid-May is the best time to plant—the early spring preferred. Like everything else that grows, gladioli greatly appreciate and repay attention and cultivation. Just a suggestion as to their use. They are very effective planted in front of small shrubbery or in a perennial border which has not yet reached maturity, as well as in generous masses by themselves. It is also an excellent plan to grow several good rows of “glads” in the back yard or vegetable garden, where they can be cut for the house without sacrificing display. Nothing is more satisfactory for vases or bowls—a heavy glass frog permits most effective arrangement in bowls.

Note—The size and beauty of the flower does not depend on the size of the bulb. Some varieties just naturally produce larger bulbs than others.

</table>
E. J. Shaylor: Pure deep rose pink. Has award of the English Horticultural Society to its credit

Elf: Snow white with a spot of clear yellow on lower petal. It is a charming flower.

Etendard: Brilliance and delicacy combine in this sort, with blush petals displaying two vivid crimson blotches outlined in clearest yellow. From France.

Evelyn Kirkland: A grand coral pink, enhanced by deeper shade on lower petals. Finely shaped flowers on long spike.

Faust: Big, wine-red flowers with ashly overcast.

Flora: Clear light yellow. Large flowers of excellent substance. Tall.

Galliennu: High-class French novelty. Clear, soft red merging into a white throat overlaid with violet. This harmony of coloring is unduplicated in any other gladiolus. Six for $25.00.

Gold Drop: Immense deep yellow, ruffled Primulinus.

Golden Measure: The finest large flowered, rich yellow gladiolus yet achieved. Tall and robust, often throwing two spikes from a single bulb.

Golden West: An orange-red, much like a tiger lily.

Goliath: A red that is almost black.

Gretchen Zang: Melting pink, with just a touch of scarlet on lower part of the flower. Late planting of this variety gives the choicest blooms.

Halley: Coral pink and early. The yellow throat has light red lines. $5.00 hundred.

Hered: Clear mauve, as charming as it is unusual. The flowers are large.

Jack London: Light salmon with orange flame stripes. The flowers are big, the spike long.

Jane Dieulafoy: Cream with chestnut blotches, stems graceful and often branched.

Jewel: A Primulinus type of moderate size but surpassing delicacy of coloring. Soft yellow and pink. It is extra fine.

Le Marechal Foch (Holland origination): Pale rose pink, extra large and early. A very prolific sort, much advertised.

London Smoke: Another of those dull, ashes of roses flowers which are unique and particularly appealing to the discriminating taste. Try a few of these in a room with Oriental coloring.

Louise: Handsome flowers of clear lavender, deeper throat. Try these arranged with pink physostegia from your perennial garden. The combination will delight you.

Loveliness: Cream blending into apricot. Well filled spike of large flowers. Flower large and open. Exceptionally pure color tone.

Majestic: Clear orange pink with creamy mid-rib in each petal. Flower large and open. Exceptionally pure color tone.

Mrs. H. E. Bothin: Pale pink with crimson throat, the petals heavily ruffled. This flower never fails to arrest attention.

Mrs. Cuthran: The blending of ashes of roses and crushed strawberry is for those who admire dull shades.

Mrs. William Kent: Fawn shading into rose. Strong growing.

Mrs. Dr. Norton: White suffused with melting pink. Sulphur yellow blotches on lower petals are dotted with pink.

Mrs. Frank Pendleton: Pink with crimson blotch, like an immense Lady Washington geranium.

Mrs. Frederick Peters: Largest and finest lavender on the market. It is a novelty of great merit.

Mrs. John R. Walsh: A pink and crimson flower of such vigor, size and beauty that it is in a class of its own.

Muriel: Finest blue of all for garden effect. It is wonderfully good looking when cut, as well.

Myra: Deep salmon and yellow combine in this huge headed bloom. It is really a Primulinus Giant, but just as graceful as its smaller relatives, and much showier.

Negerfurst: Velvety red, very dark and rich. The spikes are of exceptional length.

Nora: An European light blue, medium height and size.

Norma D. Childs: Very light pink, with lemon yellow throat.

<td>A little French gem. Blush petals with a tongue of vivid crimson on the lower ones. Very early blooming. $5.00 hundred.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sans Pareil:</td>
<td>To say that this flower is pink with a white throat conveys little idea of its remarkable beauty. The pink is of amazing clarity and softness, the white is purity itself. The flowers are large.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Scarlet Princeps:</td>
<td>Particularly good against a dark background of shrubbery or lattice. If you like an intense red, include this.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Schwaben:</td>
<td>Heavy spikes and immense flowers of waxen yellow, as impressive as lilies in the field.</td>
</tr>

JAPANESE IRISAES: These unfold their regal flowers, often eight and 10 inches across, in July. They range through delicate lavenders to richest purple, some are pure white marked with gold, others are daintily veined with contrasting color. They must have good drainage and sun. I offer only in high-class mixture as yet, some of the flowers with three petals, others with six, but all attractive in the extreme. |

IRISES—Germanica

No other hardy plant is getting quite so much attention nowadays as the iris, and if you have seen an iris-bordered path in June, flaunting its regal purple and delicate lavender and rich bronze in the spring sunshine, or have had the privilege of viewing a collection which included some of the magnificent new introductions from France and England and our own American originators, you will admit there is ample reason.

Iris increase rapidly and soon form handsome clumps. They are transplanted in early spring or early fall with equal certainty of thriving in their new locations, but full planting gives greater assurance of flowers the first season. The roots should not be set too deep—a couple of inches of soil to cover is sufficient. They require good drainage and prefer full sunshine. Manure is particularly distasteful to them and often fatal, but bone-meal and air-slaked lime are excellent. June is the month of most prolific bloom.

PERENNIALS

Faithful friends of the garden, who come back to greet us each year after a brief vacation under the winter’s ice and snow. They vary so greatly in habit, height and flower that it is an easy matter to find plants appropriate to any desired part of flower bed or garden. Descriptions are necessarily brief, but it will be a pleasure for me to answer questions concerning any particular plant.

Please order early as possible, as best results are achieved through early planting.

ALYSSUM SAXATILE COMPACTUM: “Basket of Gold” is the common name, and that’s a good description of this plant when in bloom in the spring, with its profusion of mustard yellow flowers. 1 foot... | .20 | 2.00 |

ANCHUSA ITALICA—DROPMORE: Deep blue flowers like a giant forget-me-not, borne abundantly in late spring. A mass of this plant is especially fine in the garden. 4 feet... | .35 | 3.50 |

ANCHUSA—DWARF: Flowers are a medium shade of brilliant blue. About 15 inches in height... | .25 | 2.50 |

ARMERIA: Grass-like foliage with pretty rose flowers on nine-inch stems. Fine for edging or rockery... | .15 | 1.50 |

ARTEMESIA LACTIFLORA: In late August and September its fleecy white plumes are most decorative in the garden. Besides, they broadcast a lovely hawthorne fragrance. It is an ideal informal hedge. 6 feet... | .35 | 3.50 |

AQUILEGIA: See Columbines.

ASTERS—Perennial

Do not confuse these with the annual bedding asters. The perennials are robust growers, especially good for planting at the back of borders or at the edge of a bit of woodland. Their masses of flowers in the autumn give one of the finest effects imaginable.

Beauty of Ronsdorf: Imagine graceful 15-inch stems bearing quantities of light purple flowers with golden centers (each flower as large as a silver dollar), each stem a bouquet in itself, and you will realize that this is very much out of the ordinary... | .40 | 4.00 |

Climax: Large light blue flowers with orange centers. One of the very best, 4 feet... | .25 | 2.50 |

Feltham Blue: Rich blue, very free flowering and early... | .25 | 2.50 |

Gracillima: Latest of all. Tiny white flowers, changing to blue. Fine for cutting. Seldom seen... | .40 | 4.00 |

Japanese Aster ‘Mauve Cushion’: The plant does not exceed nine inches in height and is covered in late fall with rosy lavender flowers. Do not expect this fine variety to be thoroughly effective until established a year... | .25 | 2.50 |

Old English Aster: A most unusual and dainty sort from an old English garden. The very double white flowers resemble the pyrethrum and are exceedingly attractive, 2 1/2 feet... | .50 | 5.00 |

Praecox: Heliotrope purple, glowing orange center. 4 feet... | .25 | 2.50 |

Praecox Major: Similar to preceding, but six feet tall... | .35 | 3.50 |

Robert Parker: Lavender flowers of pleasing tone... | .25 | 2.50 |

Roseum Superbum: Almost a red. Very free flowering and handsome... | .35 | 3.50 |

St. Edgwin: Beautiful soft pink flowers, borne in graceful sprays... | .35 | 3.50 |

Sub-Coerulescens: Violet blue flowers in June and July, 12-inch stems. Choice cutting material... | .25 | 2.50 |

Special—One each of the 12 asters listed above, amounting regularly to $3.85 for $3.25

ASCLEPIAS TUBEROSE: Flat heads of brilliant orange flowers in mid-summer. 18 inches... | .30 | 3.00 |

BELLIS PERENNIS MONSTROSA: A giant type of the early flowering English daisy, in cheerful mixture of white and pink, the latter predominating. Six inches. Often blooms in February... | .20 | 2.00 |

BLUE BELLS: The daintiest plant you can picture, growing but a foot high, but covered with miniature blue bells in early spring... | .30 | 3.00 |

CAMPANULAS ‘Canterbury Bells’: Cup and saucer type. Charming rose shades... | .20 | 2.00 |

Beautiful blue... | .20 | 2.00 |

CAMPANULA PERSICIFOLIA ‘White Peach Bells’: In even a modest mass, the purity and grace of these flowers are irresistible. 2 feet... | .25 | 2.50 |
CAMPRANULA PERSICIFOLIA "Blue Peach Bells": A fitting companion to the white variety ........................................... .25 2.50
CAMPRANULA—DOUBLE VIOLET: A high-class English novelty offered for the first time. Extra large and strong plants .................................................. .35 3.50
CENTAUREA DEALBATA: Beautiful long-stemmed flowers of lavender-rose, very lasting when cut. 4 feet. A plant you do not often see. Small plants .................................. .25 2.50
Large specimen plants .............................................. .75 7.50
CENTAUREA MACROCEPHALA: A very striking plant with flowers like a large yellow thistle. The brown buds are particularly admired. 3 feet ......................................... .25 2.50
CHELONE BARBATA "Shell Flower": Graceful spikes of bright pink or red flowers, springing from a tuft of glossy foliage. 2 feet ......................................................... .25 2.50

CHRYSANTHEMUMS—Hardy

These are the last flowers to give a real display in the garden and doubly acceptable on that account. And we all know the decorative possibilities of a bowl or basket of "mums" in the house.
Arctic: Pure white, a loosely formed flower.
Autumn Glow: The fall tints so much admired.
Golden Climax: Small brilliant yellow pompon.
Golden Queen: Large flowering yellow.
Hilda Channing: A charming bronze pompon.
Jane: Handsome bronze of medium size.
Julia Legreave: Dull Indian red pompon.
Magenta Queen: Free flowering; handsome.
Major Bonafon: Loosely formed, clear yellow, large.
Normandy: Large light pink, extra early, fine.
Iva: Bronze, pompon type.

All sorts listed above are 25 cents each, a dozen of a single sort, $2.50
Special—One each of the 11 sorts listed above for $2.35

COLUMBINES: The very handsomest strains obtainable, no undesirable dull colors or double flowers. No plants in my garden are more admired. Not segregated to color, but you will be pleased with every one. Plants for immediate effect ............................................................................................................. .40 4.00

COREOPSIS LANCEOLATA GRANDIFLORA: A well-cared-for plant will bear hundreds of long-stemmed flowers—all through the summer. Golden yellow. 2 feet .............................................. .25 2.50

CLEMATIS: Yellow. A rare sort. The flowers are followed by silky seed pods, making the vine a cascade of beauty in the fall. A robust grower, free from disease. Two year plants .................................................................. 1.00 10.00

DELPHINIUM BELLADONNA: The heavenly blue found in no other flower. 6 feet. Strong plants .............................................................................................................. .35 3.50
Extra strong plants .................................................................... .50 5.00

DELPHINIUM: English exhibition strains. Light and dark blues, mauve and all the intermediate and charming shades found in these flowers are embraced in this strain. A dozen plants will give splendid range of color .............................................................................................................. .35 3.50

DIANTHUS CAESIUS: A wonderful garden pink, with very erect stems and small single flowers in varying shades of pink. The foliage is of itself most ornamental. Much used for rockeries. The handsomest hardy pink in my gardens. Nine inches .............................................................................. .35 3.50

DIANTHUS DELTOIDES: Tiny flowers of deep rose color completely cover the plant in spring. Try a dozen in border of rock garden ............................................................................ .25 2.50

Special
- The collection of five Helenniums for $1.30. Six plants of each for $6.75.

HELLANTHUS "SOLEIL D'OR"
- Like Golden Glow, but superior in habit and especially suitable for informal hedging. With tall, perennial asters, the purple and gold is a good contrast.
  - Each Dozen: $0.25, $2.50

HEMEROCALLIS "DR. RIEGEL"
- These are also called day lilies. Orange flowers, very fragrant and free blooming. 18 inches.
  - Each Dozen: $0.25, $2.50
HESPERIS MATRONALIS: "Sweet Rocket." In mixed white and lavender. The outstanding feature of this flower is its delightful fragrance. 3 feet. Blooms early summer.

HOLLYHOCKS: I expected to offer extra fine and distinct varieties this year, but have reason to believe my labels have been interchanged, so can only sell in mixture. The sorts include handsome double crimson and apple blossom pink, and the new novelty known as "Exquisite," which is blotched and fringed. Will put in four of each kind on a dozen order.

HYACINTHUS CANDICANS: This is a bulb throwing a spike about 4 feet tall, with pendant white bells. Rather quaint and formal in effect. Plant at least a half-dozen to look well.

IBERIS GILBERTALTAICA: Perennial candytuft, covered with rosy lavender flowers about Decoration Day. 1 foot. Evergreen. No plant excited more comment at the Farm last season. Plant early.

IBERIS TOREANA: Similar to the above, but not so tall; smaller foliage and flowers deeper in color.

INCARVILLEA DELAVAYI: "Hardy Gloxinia." Extremely ornamental plant, seen in very few gardens. Bears bell-shaped flowers of soft pink on stems 2 feet tall. Plant in permanent location.

INULA GLANDULOSA: Massive in foliage and flowers. The bloom is 3 or 4 inches in diameter and of a deep, rich orange. 2 feet.

IRISES: See special listing on pages 3, 4 and 5.

JAPANESE ANEMONE: "Queen Charlotte." Lavender-pink, semi-double flowers from August until frost. Half shade for full sun is equally agreeable to this hardy perennial. Much larger plants.

LAVENDER: What can be more delightful than this inhabitant of old English gardens, with its sweetly scented flower spikes and association of sentiment? Strong plants. Large specimens (to nearby points only).

LILIES

Each Dozen

Lilium Elegans: Handsome orange flowers. This variety is exceptionally hardy and prolific........................................... 3.00

Lilium Speciosum Rubrum: A light rose background heavily spotted with rich crimson........................................... 4.00

Lilium Tigridum: Old-fashioned, striking tiger lily. A bold clump with proper shrubbery or other background cannot be surpassed........................................... 2.50

Lilium Regale: Handsomest of all hardy lilies. Its long, creamy trumpet with pink shading, its clear yellow throat and delicious fragrance, make a flower long remembered. Fine bulbs........................................... 1.00

St. Joseph's Lily: Also called Madonna Lily. Blooms in early summer. Pure white and highly perfumed........................................... 3.50

Lilium Pardalium: Orange flowers of graceful shape on rather slender stems........................................... 2.50

LINUM PERENNE: "The Blue Sky Flower." Dainty foliage and dainty azure flowers throughout the summer give this plant more than ordinary interest........................................... 2.50

LINARIA DALMATICA: Very much like a yellow snapdragon, but larger and handsomer plant. Very free flowering. Good looking even when not in flower, and unusual........................................... 3.50

Lobelia CARDINALIS: A perennial lobelia with flowers of truly dazzling red. 2½ feet tall. Unusually fine........................................... 3.50

LUPINES—"Downer's Hybrids": Not only do these exhibit a wide range of color, including the new bronze and rose shades, but they are pleasingly fragrant as well. Extra strong plants........................................... 4.00

LYCHNIS CHALCEDONICA: Vivid orange scarlet flowers in heads resembling the Sweet William, attract attention in any garden........................................... 2.50

MALVA MOSCHATA ALBA: Attractive foliage and a wealth of lovely single white flowers assure a place for the "White Mallow," particularly to harmonize brilliant colors in other plants. The plants offered will bloom abundantly this same season........................................... 3.50
MONARDA DIDYM: "Bergamot" is the popular name of this, and the variety is Cambridge Scarlet. A very showy plant with crimson flowers of fantastic form. Use it as an informal hedge between you and your neighbor. It is guaranteed to excite admiration...

MYOSOTIS: "Ruth Fisher." One of the largest and finest forget-me-nots grown. Far ahead of the older sorts. Large plants to bloom immediately.

ONOPORDON BRACTEATUM: A huge silver thistle from Central Asia. Grows 6 or 8 feet tall, and its light gray-green foliage is very conspicuous and pleasing, whether employed in the garden or as a specimen. Two-year-old plants...

PENSTEMON: A rare native sort with charming blue flowers tinged mauve. The foliage is the freshest, glossiest green imaginable. 2 feet. This penstemon is fully as attractive as a choice delphinium...

PEONIES

My collection of peonies includes about sixty sorts, many of them extremely choice. All are beautiful, most of them are deliciously fragrant. They are properly planted only in the fall, but if you will include peonies in your spring order the plants will be sent at just the right time, with special planting instructions. The list includes only double ones. Comparatively few sorts are offered as yet. They are strong plants, not the small divisions usually offered, and are priced in accordance with this fact.

Albert Crousse: Shell pink with slight markings of crimson in the center. Late mid-season... 1.50 15.00

Baroness Schroeder: Big globular flower of soft flesh-white. Late mid-season... 2.25 22.50

Felix Crousse: Bright red, large and full. Mid-season... 1.25 12.50

Festiva Maxima: Large and handsome white flower, showing splashes of crimson in the center. Early... 0.75 7.50

Karl Rosenfield: A huge globe of dark crimson. Extra. Mid-season... 4.00 40.00

Lora Drexchener: Intense flaming crimson. Late mid-season... 4.00 40.00

Marie Crousse: Loose flower of delicate shell pink. Mid-season... 3.00 30.00

Marie Lemoine: A charming white, very late... 1.25 12.50

Marie Jacquin: Semi-double, giving the effect of a water lily. Rose white is the color. Mid-season... 1.50 15.00

Marguerite Gerard: Flesh pink, fading to white. Just a few stamens in the center. Extra large. Late... 2.25 22.50

Each Dozen

Monsieur Jules Elie: Pale lilac rose, with lighter collar. Early and fine... 1.50 15.00

Monsieur Martin Cahuzac: Very dark, satiny red, almost black. Early... 4.50 45.00

Solange: Compact, globular flower, a combination of white delicately tinged lilac, with flesh and apricot tones toward center. One of the handsomest of all... 8.00

Triomphe de L'Exposition de Lille: Light shell pink, splashed with violet rose. Mid-season... 1.00 10.00

PERENNIAL PHLOXES

Phloxes were always an important feature of old-fashioned gardens, and they're equally indispensable now. No other perennial is quite so valuable for mid-summer flower masses, and the plants thrive equally in full sun or half shade. They like rich soil. If possible, plant at least a half dozen of one sort, for massing is essential to get the finest effect. Most of them are pleasingly fragrant. The plants I send out are not "toothpicks" just taken from the greenhouse, but vigorous plants that will bloom for you this summer, and they are worth the price asked.

Baccante: Purple-rose, with carmine eye. Tall... 0.35 3.50

Crepuscle: White suffused mauve, and showing purple eye... 0.35 3.50

Europa: Very tall white with red eye... 0.35 3.50

Lavender: I lack the name, but the shade is a pleasing one... 0.35 3.50

Mrs. Jenkins: Late blooming, fine white... 0.35 3.50

Mrs. W. E. Fryer: Pure white, extra large truss of flowers... 0.35 3.50

Miss Lingard: Extra early white, often blooming several times in a season... 0.35 3.50

Orange Scarlet: A dozen of these would arrest attention in any border. The color is dazzling... 0.35 3.50

Pantheon: Deep true pink. Immense flowers and truss. Best of all for garden effect... 0.35 3.50

Tapis Blanc: Large trusses of purest white. Dwarf and well suited to edging the taller sorts. 18 inches... 0.35 3.50

Special: One plant of each of the above 10 choice phloxes for $3.00.

PHLOX SUBLATA: "Moss Pink." A trailing plant which soon forms a mat of bright green, changing to a solid carpet of color when in flower. Lilac—especially good... 0.25 2.50

Pink... 0.25 2.50

THALICTRUM DIPTEROCARPUM: Small lavender flowers arranged in a perfect shower on very tall and much-branched stems. A well grown plant will attain a height of 6 feet. It creates a sensation whenever shown. Extra fine. 2-year plants. ............... .50 5.00

TRITOMA "EXPRESS HYBRIDS": Luxuriant clumps of rush-like foliage of tropical appearance. Impressive spikes of flowers in shades of orange and yellow, on 4 and 5-foot stems. ............... .35 3.50

TRITOMA "TORCHLIGHT": A rare dwarf form, only 18 inches tall. It is especially beautiful when combined with deep blue delphiniums. .......... .50 5.00

VERONICA—PRENJA: This is seldom catalogued in America, but is a charming plant for rockery or perennial border. Grows but 6 inches tall and blooms in early summer. Soft blue is the color. .......... .35 3.50

VERONICA SPICATA: Brilliant blue spikes, lasting a long time. The height is about 2 feet. ............... .25 2.50

VERBASCUM PANNSUM: The gray green leaves are of heavy, rich texture like velvet and very large and imposing. Bright yellow flowers are borne on a 6-foot stalk. For back of the border or as a bold clump on the lawn it would be just the thing. .......... .30 3.00

VIOLA: Deep purple, in form and color a close approach to the true violet. The plant soon forms a broad mat and blooms prodigally for six months of the year if the withered flowers are sheared. Unequaled for rich bedding effects, bordering a walk or drive. .......... .25 2.50

White form of the above. .......... .25 2.50

(Either sort, $15.00 the hundred.)

VIOLA—SCOTCH BEDDING: These are like a small pansy, but exceedingly floriferous and much used for bedding. From imported seed. Per doz. Per 100

Delicate mauve .................. 1.00 7.00
Bright yellow .................. 1.00 7.00

My plants make an especial appeal to those who are interested in the best for their gardens, realizing that an inferior plant occupies just as much space, requires as much or more care and is never thoroughly satisfactory.

SHRUBS

BUDDLEIA MAGNIFICA: "Butterfly Bush." Racemes of delightfully fragrant purple flowers in late summer, very attractive to the butterflies. Should be cut back within three feet of the ground in early spring. Flowers first season. Small plants. .......... .30 3.00
Larger plants. .......... .50 5.00

COTONEASTER MICROPHYLLA: One of the best of low-growing, evergreen shrubs. Horizontal branches are filled with bright red berries in winter. Strong plants with lots of root. .......... 1.00 10.00

SPIREA—VAN HOUTTE: Gracefully drooping branches covered with clusters of small white flowers to their tips. Six feet tall. Sometimes called "Bridal Wreath." .......... .50-$1.00

LAUREL—ENGLISH: The broad, glossy evergreen foliage of this laurel is wonderfully good looking, winter and summer. Finely shaped plants, well branched. .......... 1.50
Larger plants. .......... 2.00

LILAC: Old-fashioned purple, of delicious scent and tender memories. Three-year plants, at special price of 25 or more at great reduction. .......... .50 5.00

LILAC "PRESIDENT GREVY": One of the very choicest French sorts. Double blue. Strong bushes. .......... 1.50

ROSA HUGONIS: From Northern China. The habit is drooping, each branch clothed its entire length with sulphur yellow single roses in May. It attains height of 6 feet. The handsomest shrub of recent introduction. Heavy plants. .......... 1.50

WIEGELIA-PINK: This has been a favorite for many years. The pink bells appear about Decoration Day, completely covering the bush. 6 to 8 feet tall. .......... .50
Larger bushes .......... .75

CLIMBING ROSES:

American Pillar: Strong growing, with huge clusters of single pink roses with yellow centers. These are followed by handsome scarlet seed pods. Extra heavy plants. .......... .75 7.50

Dorothy Perkins: Well-known variety, with fleecy clouds of miniature pink roses, each perfectly double. Dainty. Heavy plants. .......... .50 5.00

Silver Moon: As indicated in the name, this is a pure white single rose of exquisite shape. The foliage is very dark and glossy. Strong bushes. .......... .75 7.50
FOR THE ROCKERY

As a little guide to the fortunate possessor of a rock garden, the following list includes the plants I offer which are particularly suitable for the rockery. Bear in mind that they do equally well in the ordinary garden:

- Alyssum Saxatile Compactum
- Armeria
- Aster Sub-coerulescens
- Bellis Perennis Monstrosa
- Blue Bells
- Dianthus Deltoides
- Erigeron Eliator
- Henchera Sanguinea
- Iberis Gilbraltica
- Iberis Toreana
- Phlox Sublata, Pink
- Phlox Sublata, Lilac
- Plumbago Larpentae
- Iceland Poppies
- Saponaria Ocyoides
- Saxifrage Megosea
- Saxifrage Umbrosa
- Silene Shafta
- Stachys Ciliata
- Spirea Filipendula
- Veronica Prenja
- Purple Viola

Special—One each of the above, 22 splendid plants in all, for $5.25. (They would regularly amount to $6.00). If desired by mail, add 20 cents for postage. Two plants of each sort for $9.50. And add postage.

ORDER YOUR BULBS EARLY

Shipment can be made at any desired time, but it will insure you against disappointment if the order is booked while stocks are complete. The same may be said of plants.

EXHIBITION AND CATALOG PRICES

Occasionally an order for bulbs is booked at one of my exhibitions and prices afterwards slightly changed when catalog is issued. In that event rest assured that extras will be sent you to more than compensate this difference.

Visit "Gladiolus Farm"

I f you are interested in flowers, or if you enjoy beautiful scenery, a trip to "Gladiolus Farm" is worth your while, and you are cordially invited to come. There are flowers from early spring until late fall, with special emphasis on the peonies and irises in May and June, gladioli in mid-summer, asters and chrysanthemums in the autumn. The farm is 23 miles east of Portland, on MAIN BULL RUN ROAD and adjoins Dodge Park. I am NOT near Boring, which is only a postoffice address. Leave Gresham on the Powell Valley Road and watch for Bull Run and Gladiolus Farm signs. The picturesque location of the farm, commanding far-reaching vistas of forest-clad hills and rushing rivers, will in itself well repay the trip.
